Polysciences, Inc. Receives National Performance Improvement Honor SOCMA Recognizes Company's Commitment to Improving Environmental, Health, Safety & Security

Warrington, PA, November 30, 2016 – Polysciences, Inc. is pleased to announce it has been recognized for exemplary efforts in improving its environmental, health, safety and security (EHS&S) by the Society of Chemical Manufacturers and Affiliates (SOCMA), the leading trade association representing specialty chemical manufacturers.

Polysciences, Inc. participates in SOCMA's ChemStewards® program, which encourages companies to operate their facilities in an environment that guarantees safety and environmental compliance to all stakeholders.

Polysciences, Inc. accepted a Bronze Performance Improvement Award at SOCMA's 95th Annual Dinner on December 5th in New York City. Michael Ott, Scott Knorr, Thomas Foster, Thai Nguyen and Mitchell Maurstad will accept the award on behalf of the company at the awards dinner.

The Warrington, PA sites were recognized for their successful efforts to improve their EHS&S in Planning and Operations.

"We are extremely proud of the hard work our employees have done on our EHS&S program. This award reflects our commitment to constant improvement for our products, our workers and our neighbors in the community," said President and CEO Mike Ott.

"Congratulations to Polysciences, Inc. and its employees on this outstanding achievement," said SOCMA President and CEO Jennifer Abril. "As specialty chemical manufacturers, it is incumbent upon companies to be good environmental stewards and create a culture at their facilities that will ensure the safety and security of their employees and community in which they live. Polysciences, Inc. has gone above and beyond to demonstrate its commitment to improving EHS&S efforts through participation in the ChemStewards Performance Improvement Program. Congratulations on a job well done."
